Why Adoption?

We want to adopt because we want Noah to have a sibling to grow up with.

When we started fostering we never intended on adoption. He was just meant to be here.

Dear Mom,

First, we want to thank you for taking the time to learn about our family. We can only imagine how emotional and difficult this journey must feel, and we hope you know how much respect we have for you.

When we first became foster parents, adoption was never part of our plan. We simply wanted to help children who needed a safe place to land. Then Noah came into our lives, and little by little, he became our son in every way that mattered. He was simply meant to be here. Adoption changed our hearts and our understanding of family forever.

One of the biggest things we hope for Noah is the chance to grow up with a sibling — someone to laugh with, play with, lean on, and walk through life beside. We love the idea of a home filled with connection, closeness, and lifelong relationships. That hope is what led us to adoption again.

Our family life is centered around togetherness. Weekends are usually spent outside playing, going on adventures, cheering at games, swimming, riding bikes, or gathering around the table with family. We believe the little moments are often the most important ones — bedtime stories, movie nights, pancakes on Saturday mornings, and laughing until your stomach hurts over a card game.

If chosen to parent your child, we promise they would always know how deeply they were loved from the very beginning. We would speak about you with kindness, honesty, and respect. We believe adoption begins with love, sacrifice, and hope, and we would make sure your child grows up knowing their story matters.

Thank you again for taking a moment to look into our lives. We know this decision comes from a place only a mother can truly understand, and we are holding space for that with so much compassion.

With love,

Jeff, Sarah & Noah

Thank You

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you.

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us and for considering us as we grow our family through adoption. We know this is not an easy decision, and we are deeply grateful that you are giving us the opportunity to share a little bit of our story.

Whatever path you choose, we hope you feel peace in your heart knowing that you are making the best decision for you and your child.

Please know that no matter what, we are cheering for you and praying for you every step of the way.

With love and gratitude,

Jeff, Sarah, Chad, Brooke & Noah
