

JORDAN and KAILEY

BEFORE I SHAPED YOU
IN THE WOMB,
i knew all about you.

BEFORE YOU SAW
THE LIGHT OF DAY,
i had holy plans for you.

EVERY FAMILY HAS A STORY,
welcome to ours.

HELLO!

WE ARE SO HONORED TO BE HERE
AND TO “MEET” YOU.

Thank you so much for taking the time to see a little glimpse into who we are. Our lives are filled with fun, joyful chaos, love, and laughter. Our little family (and extended family) is close, and our kiddos are so excited and ready to welcome a new sibling into our crew! We recognize that this process includes you at its core, and we want you to know that we have been praying for you. We believe in a God who wants to use even difficult things and turn them for good. We have seen Him do this in our own lives!

We honor, respect and support you in your decision to do something brave and difficult. We believe that despite how crazy things seem on the outside, God has a plan for both your life and your baby's, to give hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11).

ALL OUR LOVE,

JORDAN, KAILEY
TUCKER, EEVA and ESLI

our STORY

WE ARE HIGH SCHOOL SWEETHEARTS
WHO MET ON THE CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM FRESHMAN YEAR.

We connected quickly with our fun-loving personalities, mutual faith, and similar backgrounds. We got to know each other at pasta parties, running meets, and family lake trips. We loved each other's families and spent time getting to know them, too. After dating through most of high school, we knew we had something that was worth fighting for. Despite attending colleges 100 miles apart, we made the mutual decision to continue to pursue each other. We were engaged following our junior year of college and were married shortly after graduation. We cherish the love, respect, and understanding that God has given us in each other. We are thankful for the firm foundation it provides for our children to be secure in their parent's love for one another and for each of them.

WHAT LED US TO adoption?

We talked about adoption before we were married, but then life happened (fast!), and we took a little detour. Kailey's grandma was adopted, and we had several close friends growing up who's lives were blessed by adoption. We have a deep desire in our hearts for adoption after witnessing its profound impact personally. We genuinely love children and cherish the blessing they are. We do not feel our family is complete, and know that adoption is our next step together as a family.

As God helped all the pieces fall into place to lead us to pursue adoption now, we feel deep peace and know this is where we are supposed to be. We are humbled and honored by your consideration of entrusting us to raise your child.

AS TOLD BY JORDAN

KAILEY ALWAYS HAS A SMILE ON HER FACE.

There's a genuine warmth to Kailey's personality that draws people to her. She has an infectious joy and compassion for others that she spreads to the people around her. I've never met someone with as much empathy and genuine care for other people as she has. Her life-long passion for children has led her to dedicate her personal and professional life as a pediatrician to taking care of them. She is a wonderful mother of three who puts her family's needs ahead of her own. Raising our kids, she's demonstrated an abundance of patience, kindness, wisdom, gentleness, and love. I couldn't have asked for a better spouse or mother for our children.

meet JORDAN

AS TOLD BY KAILEY

JORDAN IS A LITTLE HIDDEN TREASURE THAT I'M SO THANKFUL GOD LED ME TO.

Jordan is literally one of the funniest people I know and always knows how to keep things lighthearted. He puts a smile on my face just by walking into the room. He is kind and thoughtful and has integrity in all aspects of his life. He can cook better than anyone I know, and I look forward to all of his delicious creations. He is mechanically inclined (which he turned into a career in engineering) and can fix almost anything that breaks. He always puts our family above his own needs, which makes him the natural leader our family loves to follow. He is so dedicated to me and to our children. He is present with them and always bonds with them through play, and through that foundation, he is able to guide them to become the best versions of themselves. Our kiddos tell him, "You are the best dad," but I know they won't fully appreciate the truth those words have until they are older.

OUR crew

TUCKER

Tucker is outgoing, friendly, funny, kind, and a good problem solver like his dad. He has enjoyed BMX and baseball and has requested to try gymnastics next. He loves knee boarding, jumping/flipping on the trampoline, drawing, reading, and writing stories. He loves quality time and enjoys “dates” with mom or dad on his own. Tucker is great at being the leader and is excited to continue that role with another sibling.

E EVA

Eeva is confident, creative, funny, caring, and spunky. She loves rock climbing with her dad, pretending with kitchen toys, arts and crafts, playdough, and swimming. She loves playing with her dolls with friends and never misses a moment to cuddle with Mom. One of Eeva’s favorite things to do is to make and eat taco soup with mom. Eeva is like a little mother hen to her little sister, and we know she will continue that with her next sibling.

ESLI

Esli is brave, playful, ornery, determined, and fun-loving. She is always looking for ways to make something fun. One of her favorite things to do is gather a multitude of books around her and order Mommy to read each of them one by one. Her favorite food is snacks! Her favorite perch is her Dad’s shoulders. Esli is so excited to be a “big sister” and asks most days how long it will be until she gets to hold her new sibling.

home sweet HOME

WE LIVE IN A FAMILY-FRIENDLY
NEIGHBORHOOD DOWN THE STREET FROM OUR KIDS' ELEMENTARY SCHOOL.

We live in a single-family raised ranch home with 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. We love the open floor plan on our top floor (where we spend most of our time) and how it allows us to have space to play, entertain guests, and always see what even the littlest one is up to. We love how cozy and inviting our home feels, and we have a room ready for the newest addition to our family.

WE LOVE WHERE WE LIVE!

Our neighborhood is friendly, diverse, and safe. We have gotten to know our neighbors well and love the little community in our neighborhood. We frequent the neighborhood pool in the summer and catch a lot of our friends there most days.

FAMILY and FRIENDS

We are blessed with a family that both lives close and loves to be around each other. Our extended family includes Jordan's parents and his two brothers, along with their wives and children. On Kailey's side, she has her parents, a twin sister, and her husband and children, as well as a little sister and soon-to-be brother-in-law. We see our extended family weekly and often have impromptu weekend gatherings for dinners, watch parties, game nights, and sleepovers with cousins.

FAMILY and FRIENDS

Our family members share our values and faith in Christ, and they are our best friends. That said, we also have a close friend group we have known since high school that we share birthday parties and fun gatherings with. We also choose to walk closely with a group of friends from church in a similar life stage and meet twice a month with them to share life's ups and downs and encourage one another.

OUR promises

IF YOU CHOOSE TO ENTRUST US WITH THE IMMENSE HONOR OF RAISING YOUR PRECIOUS BABY, WE PROMISE THESE THINGS TO YOU:

We promise to raise your baby in a loving and happy environment with siblings and parents who treasure and cherish them.

We promise to love them with patience, kindness, humility, and respect.

We promise to honor you and your story and make sure they know of the love and bravery their mother displayed.

We promise to be open to your baby about their adoption from the earliest age they understand and be supportive of them as they work through finding their identity and how adoption fits into that.

We promise to protect them.

We promise to see them as a unique individual, fearfully and wonderfully made with a unique set of gifts and talents.

We promise to have you as involved in your child's life as you are comfortable with.

We promise to provide them with a good education and to help them meet their life goals.

We promise to make memories, take vacations, help them build healthy relationships, and do everything we can to give them a happy childhood.
